SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

- 1. Three new morehant ships of about 1,000 tons each were completed in the Schichau Shipyard, Gdanek (54°22'13/18040'13, on 25 November 1950. Another new slip of about 1,000 tons, without masts, had a round turret without visible openings in place of the bridge superstructures. *
- 2. Part of the hull of a long, slender vessel could be seen. It probably was a destroyer. The vessel was very rusty. Work was being done on the dock.
- 3. Work in the shiryard was done in three shifts. The shipyard and the entire harbor area were closely guarded by Polish police. There was much traffic in the harbor between 24 November and 3 Docember 1950. In average of about 1; ships were loaded daily.

25X1A

Corment. The recently built ships are probably the merchant ships Lodz, Tarszawe, Istrowski and Oliva which were launched early in 1950.
